The "champagne cork"

From
€37
/pers.

When viewed from above, the historic centre of Troyes, the historic capital of Champagne, is shaped almost exactly like a champagne cork. It is for this reason that locals refer to this part of the city as the "Bouchon de Champagne" (French for "champagne cork"). This day offers you a complete visit of the city of 100 steeples.

10:00 / Reception at Troyes La Champagne Tourisme and screening of the film "The secrets of Troyes La Champagne" (EN / FR)

10:30 / Guided tour of the historic centre

Immerse yourself in the history of the historic capital of Champagne and discover the Saint-Jean-au-Marché district with its remarkable half-timbered houses from the 16th century, its medieval alleyways including the picturesque Ruelle des Chats (alley of cats), its secret courtyards and St Madeleine church with its remarkable Renaissance roodscreen, true stone lacework.

12:00 / Lunch in a restaurant in the heart of town

14.30 / Guided tour of the cathedral district

This unmissable walk in the city's oldest district will allow you to discover the cathedral and its 1500 m<sup>2</sup> of listed stained-glass windows, the remarkable 16th century homes and the courtyard of the former episcopal palace.

DAY PACKAGE

Troyes, European capital of stained glass

from €40
/pers.

Discover the exceptional wealth that the master glassmakers bequeathed to Troyes and Champagne over the centuries. No other region offers both such quality and such density! With 9,000 m<sup>2</sup> of listed glasswork, including 1,500 m<sup>2</sup> for Troyes Cathedral alone, the Aube department is the richest representative of this artistic production in France!

10:00 / Reception at Troyes La Champagne Tourisme. Screening of the film "The secrets of Troyes La Champagne" (EN / FR)

10:30 / Guided tour of the historic heart:

from the cathedral to the Church of St Madeleine via the Church of St Pantaléon, your guide speaker will show you, in situ, the history of stained glass from the Middle Ages to the present day.

12:00 / Lunch in a restaurant in the heart of town

14:30 / Guided tour of the Cité du Vitrail

a 3,000 m<sup>2</sup> interpretation centre. You'll discover the exceptional riches of stained glass in all its dimensions: historical, technical, aesthetic... The many masterpieces, both ancient and contemporary, placed at eye level help you apprehend "up close" the stylistic evolution from the Middle Ages to the present day.

Mixing traditions and know-how

from
€41
/pers.

Of all the cities in France which have preserved quality wooden buildings, Troyes is certainly the one with the most dense, most homogeneous and the best preserved or best restored heritage! After almost disappearing, this incredible collection of half-timbered houses in variegated colours inherited from the Middle Ages and Renaissance and restored by the master carpenters of Aube, is now the pride of this city of Champagne.

10:00 / Reception at Troyes La Champagne Tourisme. Screening of the film "The secrets of Troyes La Champagne" (EN / FR)

10:30 / Guided tour of the historic heart:

discover the magnificent "identical" restorations and constructions carried out mainly by the Compagnons du Devoir et Maîtres Charpentier (Guild of Master Carpenters). From Rue Emile Zola to Ruelle des Chats via the Cour du Mortier d'Or, your guide speaker will introduce you to the changes in structures and decoration that characterise these half-timbered houses.

12:00 / Lunch in a restaurant in the heart of town

14:30 / Guided tour of the Maison de l'Outil et de la Pensée Ouvrière (Mopo). Awarded in 1966 by the city of Troyes to the Compagnons du Devoir et du Tour de France (organisation of craftsmen and artisans), the Hôtel de Mauroy has since 1969 housed the collections of tools and books bequeathed by Jesuit priest Paul Feller. Mopo presents a unique collection of 12,000 hand-crafting tools from the 17th, 18th and 19th centuries, all wonderfully displayed.

Troyes, the city of a thousand colours

from €40
/pers.

As you stroll through the historic heart of Troyes known as the “Bouchon de Champagne” (Champagne Cork), discover beautiful colourful 16th-century timber-framed houses, Renaissance mansions, flamboyant churches, secret passages and intimate courtyards. You'll end your visit in style by strolling through the Museum of Modern Art, which houses one of the finest collections in Europe.

10:00 / Reception at Troyes La Champagne Tourisme. Screening of the film “The secrets of Troyes La Champagne” (EN / FR)

10:30 / Guided tour of the historic heart: From the picturesque Ruelle des Chats to the Church of the Madeleine and the Cour du Mortier d'Or, your guide speaker will reveal all the secrets of a city nicknamed the City of a Thousand Colours.

12:00 / Lunch in a restaurant in the heart of town

14:30 / Guided tour of your choice of the Museum of Modern Art. Born from the donation made to the State by Pierre and Denise Lévy, industrial hosiery makers, the museum houses a remarkable collection providing a unique panorama of the major trends in French art between 1850 and 1960. Other acquisitions have complemented the museum's initial collection, bringing the collection to date to nearly 3,500 works, including notably Braque, Degas, Gauguin, Matisse, Modigliani, Picasso, Rodin, etc.

Or the Museum of Fine Arts (St Loup), where masterpieces of French painting from the 14th to the 19th century (School of Barbizon, Mignard, Watteau...) rub shoulders with those of European painting (Spranger, Vasari, Rubens and Bellotto). In the field of sculpture, you can admire rare medieval pieces from the cathedral, as well as the churches of Troyes and its surrounding area.
